Ten Cents

The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

Anxious Reader:

You're right. Whether President Nixon approved or even knew about the election's "Dirty Tricks" activity is the basis for many discussions, now and in the future.

Best test is to take the next full-face picture of the President that runs in any newspaper, pin it to the wall, look at it objectively and ask yourself: "Does he look like he would participate in Dirty Tricks?"

That's how we do it!

The Making of a Will

A few days ago, following a death in the family, the question of wills came up.

It is not known whether a will was left by the decedent, but survivors, certainly, turned their thoughts to the time a will would be needed at the time of their own passing.

It is with that thought that information regarding wills is presented. The material is the result of research by a national insurance firm.

In simplest terms, a will is a vehicle providing for the orderly distribution of property in accordance with your predetermined wishes at time of death. Every adult probably needs a will, even those in modest circumstances.

Americans today often begin building sizeable estates in their early twenties. The relatively liberal fringe benefits now provided in most occupations can have a dramatic impact when one takes stock of his total financial worth. With group life insurance, company profit sharing, home ownership, pension plans and the now increased social security benefits, many people on the lower end of the economic ladder can point to estate potential far exceeding what one might normally estimate, without taking an exact personal inventory.

Here are the three steps you should consider now to prevent grief and potential hardship later.

Retain the services of a trusted family lawyer or contact a local professional lawyer organization for the names of lawyers in your area to be pleased to assist you in the drawing up of a will. Of course fees can vary but a basic will for someone of modest means should be relatively inexpensive. Don't hesitate to ask the attorney in advance to estimate what his fee will be. You will need to plan, ahead of your appointment, a complete inventory of assets. Include: savings; shares of mutual funds; stocks and bonds; life insurance, whether purchased individually or through a group plan at work; all property (home, car, furnishings, etc.); a coin or stamp collection, in fact, anything of value to you or your heirs. Then go over the list with your spouse, a relative or close friend. They often can remind you of other assets that have been overlooked.

After review of your list of assets, the lawyer will need to know your plan for distribution. He should be shown deeds, bank books, stock certificates, appraisals and other similar documents to best advise you whether a change in title might be prudent in order to save taxes or to carry out your desires. Also in the event of death of your will's chief beneficiary—for instance your wife is killed in a car crash that also takes your life—who would receive the benefits in her place? If one is not designated, the state in its impersonal way will take over and may distribute in a way contrary to your current wishes.

Think this over carefully since it can be the most crucial aspect of determining the will, and any probate lawyer will be quick to recall examples of the least conceivable events as—the ones that did result! The will is a very flexible document and as many alternative plans as you desire can be incorporated in it. Allow logic to prevail—a family squabble is no time to make a resentful decision that you may not live to regret.

Another extremely important consideration if you have minor children is to agree in advance who will be the guardian if you should die prematurely. The surviving spouse will almost automatically be appointed but in the event of a common disaster, it is comforting to know that a relative or friend with child rearing beliefs similar to yours will assume the heavy burdens of parenthood.

The lawyer will also ask you to appoint an executor whose chief responsibility is overseeing distribution according to terms of the will. A simple, modest estate (one in which assets consist primarily of cash or property easily convertible to cash) could be served, in the interest of economy, by your spouse or trusted relatives as executor.

A more complex estate should probably have the services of a co-executor—frequently a bank. There is a fee for this service but it is invariably worth the nominal charge since settling your estate might involve a highly technical real estate transaction, liquidation of common stock holdings at a favorable time, or a host of other problems that can arise. In the case of substantial assets it might be wise to consider the services of a qualified estate planner. All lawyers can draw a simple will but a lawyer who specializes in estate planning may be more versed in ways in which you can better accomplish your aims and often save substantial amounts on estate and inheritance taxes.

If you already have a will, review it periodically and if any of the conditions listed below has occurred—steps should be taken immediately to update it. Failure to do so could result in certain portions of the will being invalid or terms of distribution might be contrary to your previous wishes.

Sale of property specifically left to an heir.

Your executor dies, becomes incapacitated or has moved out of the area.

You've moved to another state or have taken up residence outside the country.

Acquisition of new assets.

Inheritance tax laws of your state have changed.

Federal Estate Tax changes are enacted.

Your marital status has changed. Marriage or divorce may revoke a previously valid will.

A child, now grown, no longer needs as much help as when the will was written or another child may require substantially more help than his brothers or sisters.

Two In Fire Directors Race

AWARD RECEIVED—Dr. Robert Sutton, Superintendent of the Lemon Grove School District, is given his award by one of the seminar directors.

Dr. Sutton Honored At Statewide Seminar

Dr. Robert Sutton, Superintendent of the Lemon Grove School District, has been awarded a certificate of achievement in a Management Accountability Seminar, concluded in Los Angeles last week. The seminar was designed to improve superintendents' skills as educational executives, and covered six months plus 12 days of an intensive seminar sessions.

The statewide seminar was sponsored by the U. S. Office of Education, Wilson Riles, State Superintendent of Schools, the Association of California School Administrators, the California School Boards Association, and the superintendents of schools from seven counties in the state.

Dr. Sutton is among 90 superintendents in the state to have completed the seminar. PEDR, a non-profit research and development firm, conducted the seminars through the Center for Advanced Management Education in Public Affairs. Dr. Kent Lloyd, president of PEDR, described the seminars as, "an intensive post-doctoral experience integrating the newest advances in the policy, behavioral and management sciences to provide better tools for more effective management of district educational resources."

The seminars were developed to help superintendents meet the challenges facing urban education. Seminar content focused on helping superintendents clarify their educational philosophy, re-examine their role in the management of district resources, build more effective working relationships among staff members, design long-range plans for improving the quality of education, and develop wider community support.

The Lemon Grove Planning Association will continue its discussion of the proposed plan for the Broadway Special Corridor study at 3 p.m. this afternoon.

The discussion is a continuation of the Association's last meeting, August 9, when over 70 people were present. The new land use designations were the subject of much talk at the last meeting and many suggestions were given on how the plan could be improved.

Other items on the agenda are agricultural land use designations, and a report on riding and hiking trails.

All community residents are invited to attend this and all executive committee meetings.

One of the matters to be discussed is Christmas decorations for the Plaza. Probably, outlines for the holiday home decoration contest will come up at the meeting.

A change in format, welcomed by most board members, is doing away with talks by visitors leaving more time for board action on strictly chamber affairs.

The meeting will be held at Pal's of Lemon Grove at Imperial and Lester.

The Chamber office will be closed for two weeks beginning August 27 to accommodate a vacation for the Chamber's office manager Helen Myers.

SV Woman Arrested On Dangerous Drugs, Prescription Fraud

A Sping Valley woman and a San Diego man were arrested last Thursday for possession of dangerous drugs, and attempting to pass a fraudulent prescription.

The woman, Darla June Barker, 27, was additionally charged with possession of marijuana.

She and the man, Paul William Roemer, 26, were arrested by Sheriff's deputies while attempting to pass a fraudulent prescription at Lemon Grove Rexall Drugs on Broadway. Deputies were called by the pharmacist, who became suspicious when he called the doctor who had allegedly made out the prescription and found he was on vacation.

The two were taken to the station and booked. When searched, a baggie of green vegetable matter was found in Ms. Barker's purse along with another prescription, and a bottle containing four capsules of Tuinal. A capsule was also found on Roemer. The two were taken to County Jail.

L.G. Chamber Looks Toward Christmas

The regular monthly meeting of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce will be held today at noon, according to Dell Lake, chamber president.

One of the matters to be discussed is Christmas decorations for the Plaza. Probably, outlines for the holiday home decoration contest will come up at the meeting.

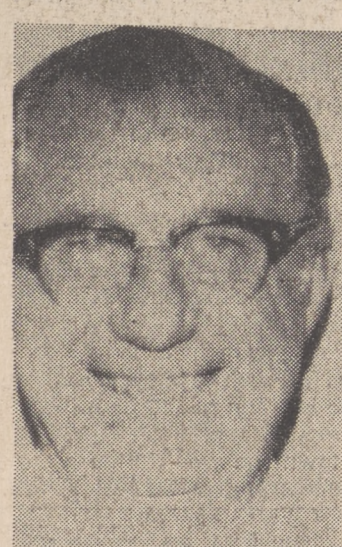

A change in format, welcomed by most board members, is doing away with talks by visitors leaving more time for board action on strictly chamber affairs.

The meeting will be held at Pal's of Lemon Grove at Imperial and Lester.

The Chamber office will be closed for two weeks beginning August 27 to accommodate a vacation for the Chamber's office manager Helen Myers.

Incumbent Challenged For Fire Board Seat

Two men have filed for the November Lemon Grove Fire District director at large election. The two are the incumbent, William E. Wardell, and his challenger Dennis E. Moreno.

Wardwell, the Board president, has been a member of the Board since 1965. He has worked for Pacific Telephone for 33 years, 20 years as a supervisor. A Lemon Grove resident for 21 years, he lives in the area with his wife and son.

Wardwell had this to say concerning the election, "The tax rate for the Lemon Grove Fire District in 1966 was .694 per hundred dollar valuation. In 1973 and 1974 it is only .798. The District is rated with the best in the state of California. I feel with the inflation we have experienced in the last few years that this is a real accomplishment. As a taxpayer in the district I take pride in the record since I have had the honor of serving on the Board of Directors since 1965."

His opponent Dennis Moreno, is 25 and a newsman. He is the former senior editor at KSDO news radio and presently working at Traffic Central as an investigative reporter. Moreno and his family live on Citronella in Lemon Grove.

Moreno gave his reasons for running, "I'm seeking the office because I believe that there is a change coming in the Heartland area fire departments. With the advent of new state legislation limiting tax bases and the like, Lemon Grove is going to have to look long and hard at consolidation. Having been a newsman for several years, I am familiar with the problems facing local government and I feel I can help this area improve its fire services. I feel my background as a newsman helps me see things in a more objective light than local politicians. Lemon Grove is going to have to be prepared to meet the future and I am of the belief that I can help it meet its goals."

Deadline for filing is 5 p.m. August 31. Nominating petitions can be obtained at 7853 Central ave., or at the registrar of voters, 5555 Overland ave., San Diego. Directors are paid $20 a meeting, with meetings scheduled twice monthly.

LG Schools Have Free Lunches for Needy Kids

The Lemon Grove School District will provide a free and reduced price meal policy for school children unable to pay the full price of meals served in schools under the national school lunch program.

Children from families whose income is at or below levels set by the District are eligible for meals free or at reduced prices. In addition, families not meeting this criteria but with other unusual expenses due to unusually high medical expenses, shelter costs in excess of 30 percent of income, special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child, and disaster or casualty losses are urged to apply.

They may do so by filling in the application forms sent home in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. The information provided on the application is kept confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility. Applications may be submitted any time during the school year.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has such children living with them and wishes to apply for such meals for them, they should contact the school. In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of his race, sex, color, or national origin. Under the provision of the policy the school principal will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the official, he make make a request either orally or in writing to James I. Justeson, Assistant Superintendent of Instruction the principal's office in each school. The information provided on the application is kept confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility. Applications may be submitted any time during the school year.

Marijuana Charges Handed Two Here For Narcotics

SAN DIEGO (CNA)—Two 1341 Sweetwater rd., was indicted with five S. Bay men and charged with offering $25,000 of cocaine to BNE agents. Failing that, they offered marijuana.

In a raid by agents on a National City residence agents seized 285 pounds of the narcotic, and $11,000 in cash. Judge Focht set bail at $5,000. The charge against Daniel is possession of marijuana for sale.

William Gary Burnett, 21, of 8880 St. Georges pl., was accused with eight San Diego men of an offer made on July 31 to sell 1,150 pounds of marijuana to an undercover agent of the Bureau of Narcotics Enforcement. Bail for Burnett was $25,000.

Terry Glen Daniel, 21, of

PADRE ON NEW WHEELS—Padre Antonio Munoz is the pastor of seven poor parishes in the Ensenada area, which includes over 5,000 parishioners and 50 square miles. He was the first Mexican priest ordained in the San Diego Diocese. Over a month ago his old car gave out on him and he was without transportation. The Ellis Evers family of La Mesa, friends of the padre, learned of his situation when they stopped to visit him in El Sauzal. They told him of a 1964 station wagon in excellent condition that was for sale, and of a youth group they knew who could raise the money, the St. John of the Cross Catholic Youth Organization, in Lemon Grove. When Mrs. Evers got back to town she went to the group and asked for their help. The morning of August 7, the group's sponsor called Mrs. Evers with the news that the group would raise the funds necessary. Now Mrs. Evers had to find a way to contact Padre Munoz. Within an hour the Padre made an unexpected appearance at the front door of the Evers home. He had come by bus looking for information about the car. That evening 25 of the CYO members attended a pool party to meet and visit with the man they had helped. The Padre was presented with a $50 check and the keys to the car and assurance that the bank loan would be made good by the group. The kids plan to raise the money with a dime-a-dip dinner or a car wash. In the picture from the left are, Tony Lazcar, CYO president, Padre Munoz, Ellis Evers, and the CYO advisor, Fred Santo Tomas.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor: The past through locally structured organization such as the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California you have been writing and publishing of late. Specifically, the one on CPO/REGIONAL GOVERNMENT hit the mark dead center. Under the guise of subvention (grants and/or revenue sharing) the "Great White Father" at Washington is ostensibly creating a new federalism, viz., getting back to local control. Through this technique regional review, the exact opposite is rapidly occurring. The apron strings which tie us to Washington is gradually turning into shackles with the hardness of stainless steel. Regionalism is a concept of the schizophrenically afflicted planners in Washington which has filtered down to many at the local levels. Admittedly modern urbanization has created problems of mass transportation, water and air pollution, and many others. These we must solve if we are to realize the better way of life. But why must we submit to more tiers of government control to achieve these goals? Integrated Systems Better Many so called regional problems have been solved in prompted to do something about it! Sincerely, Alex Struthers 207 Lakeview ave., Spring Valley, Ca. Dear Editor: We at the Maritime Museum Association wish to thank you for the excellent coverage which you gave us in the Lemon Grove Review. It was an excellent article and one which will be most helpful to us. As you know, we are in the midst of a fund drive to raise $500,000 to restore the Berkeley. She is a beautiful old ship and will serve us well as a floating museum. Additionally, as covered by your article, the yacht Medea has been completely restored, and we hope to have her along side of Berkeley within the next three or four weeks. With any luck we hope to have the Berkeley and Medea open to the public some time in early November. This way we hope to provide additional entertainment and enjoyment as well as a knowledge of the sea and our history to over 150,000 yearly visitors. The San Diego Maritime Museum has named Lt. Gen. Louis Metzger, USMC (Ret.) as Director of Development. Robert Sharp, President of the Maritime Museum Board of Directors, said that Gen. Metzger would assume broad managerial responsibilities, as well as directing the drive to raise $500,000 to restore the steam ferryboat, The Berkeley. Gen Metzger was the commander of a 25,000 man air ground team, the 111 Marine Amphibious Force, in the Western Pacific prior to his retirement in April of this year. A graduate of Stanford University, he entered the Marine Corps in 1939 and saw combat in World War II, Korea and Vietnam.

Medical Record Form Distributed by Charity

Over 12,000 medical forms have been distributed to 13 hospital auxiliaries by the San Diego-Imperial Chapter of the March of Dimes to aid families and physicians in keeping accurate health records. "Expanding medical knowledge has made possible the prevention and control of many diseases," according to Dr. William Tisdale, chairman of the Medical Advisory committee for the chapter. "With the aid of up-to-date records conditions can be more easily diagnosed and in some cases, even anticipated. We feel this can have a significant impact on the prevention of birth defects."

This joint effort, called Operation Heritage, was developed by the March of Dimes' California council of volunteer advisors and the California Hospital Association's volunteer services division.

Requests for the forms are processed through the March of Dimes, when then distributes the materials at no cost to the hospitals, in permanent health record containers provided by the California Hospital Association. Hospital volunteers see that each new mother, clinic patient, auxiliary member and hospital employee receives the Family Medical Record.

Additional forms may be obtained by contacting the San Diego March of Dimes, 6156 Mission Gorge Road, San Diego 92120.

Johnson said: "In consideration of current social and economic patterns, VA will hereafter recognize in full the income and expenses of both the veteran and spouse in determining ability to repay a loan obligation."

Gordon R. Elliott, Director of the Los Angeles Veterans Administration Regional Office, explained that the VA is required by law to determine if the contemplated terms of the repayment bear a proper relation to the veteran's anticipated income and expenses before approving a loan.

Hemophilia Association Plans Charity Dance

A miniature Chinese junk, part of an antique jade collection worth $4,000.00, was shown to Mayor Pete Wilson by David Thornburgh and Scott and Joseph Harper, all children under 6 years of age, all hemophiliacs.

The heirloom collection of jade, containing 16 pieces, was donated to the Hemophilia Association of San Diego County by Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Harper of San Diego. It will be auctioned at a fund-raising dinner-dance, "Oriental Charm," which the Hemophilia Association is sponsoring September 21 at the Royal Inns at the Wharf. The collection is currently on display at the U.S. National Bank, in San Diego, until Monday; then, it will spend one week at Jessop's Jewelers, in the Escondido Village Mall, and at Summit Bank of California from September 3 to September 21.

Besides Mayor and Mrs. Pete Wilson who are honorary patrons of the event, attorney Chuck Connors may attend the dinner-dance. Connors is chairman of the Hemophilia Association of San Diego County.

According to Mrs. George Thornburgh, president of the association, the goal of the dance is to raise enough money to aid the 64-known hemophiliacs in San Diego County and their families.

As a non-profit health organization, the Hemophilia Association of San Diego County, with the help of a medical advisory board, assists in arranging advanced medical care, defrays costs, conducts educational programs for the community, and provides information and referral services.

'Boys in the Band' Rehearsals Underway

Off Broadway's rehearsals have started for Mart Crowley's highly controversial "The Boys in the Band," it was announced by the theatre's producers Don Wortman and Tom Hartzog.

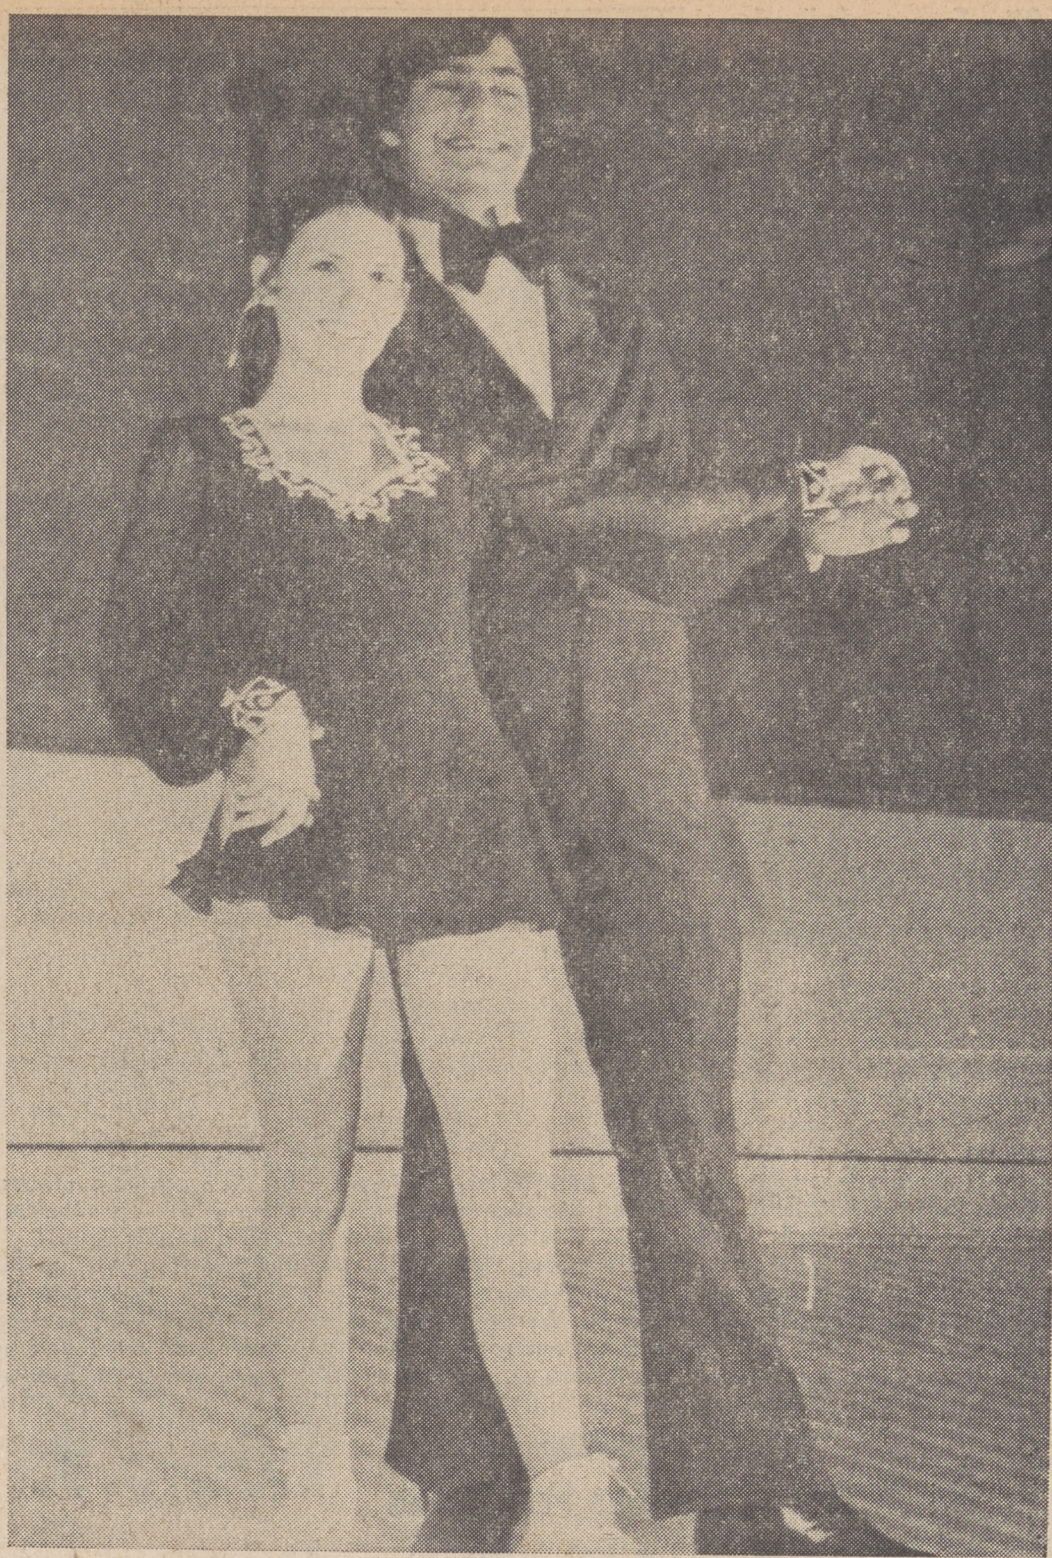

As was the case with "Lenny," Off Broadway's June presentation, the all-male "Boys in the Band" has content, stage action and language that some might find offensive, the producers warned. Meanwhile, Dean Jones will be presented in "Pal Joey."

"Boys in the Band" will open August 28 for five weeks and stars Dennis Cole and Roger Herren. Cole played in "Felon Squad" and "Bracken's World." Cole was in the film "Myra Breckinridge."

"Boys in the Band" is a frank and compelling contemporary comedy-drama which a writer for the N.Y. Times called "... the best American play for some few seasons."

It will be presented at 8:30 each night except Monday with 2 p.m. matinees Saturdays and Sundays. The Sunday evening performance will be at 7:30.

The discount policy continues for senior citizens, youth and military personnel with low-priced previews on August 28 and 29. Off Broadway is at 314 "F" st.

Desert Off-Road Vehicle Management Plan Sought

The preliminary draft of the U.S. Bureau of Land Management's California desert off-road vehicle management plan will be available for public review next month, BLM State Director J. R. Penny announced today.

Penny said the target date for release of the draft is September 8. The plan will be presented to leaders of desert users' and conservation organizations September 8-16 so they may review it with their memberships. It will be made available simultaneously to the general public and mobile displays will be set up in desert communities and the surrounding metropolitan area to present the plan. Public review and comment will be invited September 16-October 16. Final revision of the plan is scheduled for November 1.

Penny said the plan is being prepared with maximum public participation, including meetings with concerned user and conservation groups and state, federal and local government agencies. Various tentative planning options and resource management constraints were presented and public review sought at a series of 16 "open house" meetings held in the desert area in June.

The California Desert Plan Staff, which is developing the ORV management plan, will make the basic management recommendations. Management planning decisions will be reached jointly by both the Desert Plan Director and appropriate BLM district manager, in Riverside or Bakersfield, after consultation with the BLM's State Office resource staff. Penny said, however, that as State Director he has responsibility for final adoption and implementation of the plan.

"We will not implement the entire plan immediately," Penny said, "but in stages as sufficient funds and manpower become available and as we gain further management experience."

The ORV plan will provide for use by casual and organized motorcyclist, dune buggy riders, four-wheel drive enthusiasts, rockhounds, hunters and others, within the framework of protection of wildlife, mineral, scenic, historic, and cultural resources.

Penny said the off-road vehicle management plan is a continuation of efforts begun in 1968 with BLM's California desert study, and underscored last year by Executive Order 11644 in which President Nixon ordered a program of off-road vehicle management on all federal lands.

The BLM has already initiated requirements for special land use permits for organized events involving ORVs on national resource lands in California. Management of casual or unorganized use will be sought through the ORV management plan.

Persons and organizations wishing to review the draft plan after September 8 may obtain copies by writing the California Desert Plan Staff, Bureau of Land Management, P. O. Box 723, Riverside, CA 92502, or visiting the office at 1414 University Avenue, Riverside.

Performing Elephant Retires to San Diego Wild Animal Park

Nita, a female elephant, estimated age 24, settled into her new quarters last Wednesday, at the San Diego Wild Animal Park, after 18 years as a performing pachyderm. She has been donated to the Park by her lifelong trainer Charles Franks, who received the elephant when she was shipped, at about age 5, from Bangkok, Thailand.

Franks says Nita made her first road tour to the Hawaiian Islands, where she learned to do hula, costumed in a grass skirt and accompanying herself on a harmonica.

As Nita's fame and abilities grew, she traveled throughout half the United States, performing live or appearing in numerous movies, among them The Ugly American. In later television serials and commercials, Nita tested compact cars, tasted cookies and naturally endorsed peanut butter products.

"Nita is a friendly elephant who gets acquainted easily and mixes well," Franks said, and he expects she'll enjoy her new leisurely life and shared quarter with the three other Asian elephants at the Park.

Nita has many very good years left, says Park Animal Services Manager Bill Crytser, as an elephant's longevity roughly compares with a human's life span. But, other than an occasional dip in the elephant wash or a friendly wave as passing monorail passengers, Nita will not be performing at the Park.

City Survey Calls for Better Transportation Facilities for Seniors

Senior Citizens in San Diego generally enjoy better transportation, recreational opportunities and housing than their counterparts in other major American cities, according to a comprehensive survey released today by Mayor Pete Wilson.

The survey was completed for The Urban Observatory of San Diego by Dr. Oscar J. Kaplan, professor of psychology and director of the Center for Survey Research at California State University at San Diego.

A representative sample of 500 senior citizens from all areas of the city were interviewed in February, and their responses form the basis for the survey's conclusions.

"...The aged in the City of San Diego in the main perceive of themselves as fairly well satisfied with transportation, recreation and housing... The City of San Diego has a much lower percentage of impoverished aged than most large American cities," the survey concluded.

Despite these general conclusions, Dr. Kaplan told a news conference that approximately 10 percent of the city's estimated 67,000 seniors over age 65 make up a "hard core" which does not have adequate transportation, recreation or housing.

Of these three problem areas, Dr. Kaplan said "transportation stands out as the area in which local government can accomplish the most for elderly San Diegans in the next several years with a limited investment."

Dr. Kaplan also cited a need for multipurpose centers for senior citizens, which would offer social and recreational opportunities, as well as counseling and health services. Such centers might ideally be tied in with new housing complexes for seniors that enjoy easy access of shopping, recreation and transportation, Dr. Kaplan said.

instructor for seven years. Monday was the first day of the two-week program, which meets every day, for 45 minutes. Classes are taught in pools which have been volunteered by people in the community. This pool is Mr. and Mrs. Gar's of 3710 Linda Ln. "The whole idea of the program is to teach kids they can have fun and be safe in the water," said Sue.

Grossmont College Offers New Classes For Fall Semester

Grossmont College will be offering several new classes, in many diversified areas this semester.

Women in Society is a social science course designed to explore the woman's role in today's world. It is open to both men and women. The class will cover the woman from infancy to retirement, including women and the law, the pros and cons of the equal rights amendment, and other liberation movements.

Legal dictation and transcription is the subject of a new course at the school. The course will stress familiarity with legal documents and procedures as well as legal terminology.

A new political science class, Law and the Citizen, will be offered at the college. The class will familiarize students with the law in general, its sources and functions and how they relate to the citizen. Emphasis will be placed on the use of law to regulate a citizen's activity while protecting him from excessive governmental interference with his freedom, as well as from excesses of economic, social and political discrimination.

For the first time Grossmont will offer an introductory Real Estate Appraisal during the day. The prerequisite for the course is completion of Real Estate Principles or a current California real estate salesmans or brokers license.

The application deadline for these and all classes offered by the college is tomorrow. Registration is scheduled for September 4 through 7, with classes beginning September 11.

L.G., S.V. Schools Readying Programs For September

It's the end of August and school will be starting soon for many students. Some people have been working all summer preparing for this fall, among them administrators in the various districts and in the schools themselves.

Almost every school will be offering something new this year, whether it be new classes like oceanography at Monte Vista, or new libraries in the Lemon Grove School District.

In the Grossmont School District, Monte Vista and Mt. Miguel hold most of the area high school students. At both schools, and throughout the District students will be registering with ESP, Early September Programming. This is a new concept in high school education that was tested at Monte Vista, Mt. Miguel, and two other high schools last year.

Basically the system involves making course selections in the late spring, when a master schedule of made up of all requested courses. In mid-August students were mailed registration materials, including the master schedule and his preliminary course selections. From this the student makes his final decision, choosing the time and instructor for his courses. He is also assigned a priority for registering at the school. He must appear on his designated day or lose his priority.

"The program worked out well last year," said Robert H. Fielder, Director of Special Projects. "It gives the kids good practical experience."

Registration Times Registration times have been announced for the district schools. At Mt. Miguel seniors will register from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m. on September 4, juniors the same day from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., sophomores the following day from 9 to 11:30 a.m., and freshmen, September 6, from 8:30 to 11 a.m.

At Monte Vista seniors will register September 4, from 1 to 4:30 p.m., juniors the next day from 8 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., sophomores September 6, at the same time, and freshmen, September 7, from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

When students register at help in grades kindergarten through third, cutting the ratio of students to teachers from 30 to 1 to 10 to 1, thus allowing more individualized attention for each child.

The District is also in the process of putting libraries in at each school. Where possible the library will have a whole room for use, but in some cases it will be located in the school auditorium.

The pre-school program has been renewed until January. This program is held at San Miguel school and is primarily for lower income families.

Enrollment is expected to decrease this year in the Lemon Grove District. There has been a steady decline of about 2 1/2% throughout the district in enrollment.

The La Mesa-Spring Valley School District will be starting many new programs this year throughout the district. One of these is the pre-school speech and hearing program. Children are selected from the pre-school listing of the district who have problems and brought to school where they can receive help. The advantage of this program is that the children can be helped earlier thus bypassing some school problems a child who has not received help may have.

Career Choices Picking a career may be a little early to decide in 7th or 8th grade, but in the Spring Valley area, several students are part of the career development project. These students go out into the community and work for one or two weeks in a job they are interested in.

The children in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area, from pre-school on up to seniors in high school will have many advantages and many challenges this year as they return to school. The administrators in the districts know this for a fact, the students will find out come September 11.

New Season, Coach for Aztecs

Defensive End Rick Ash

All is not lost on San Diego's gridirons. State College Aztecs commence practice Tuesday on the Montezuma Campus.

Some things are old. Others new. Claude Gilbert, who served under Don Coryell, is the new head coach. "We're anxious to get started," Gilbert said. "Don's success was so great that it is a challenge to the team and to me to carry on traditions Don left behind. We have a great home schedule. Coaches and players alike are anxious to start work."

Two of a rather substantial list of holdover players are wide receiver Tim Boyer and defensive end Rick Ash, both seniors. Both are scheduled to start, barring injury.

John Maffei, publicist for the Aztecs, opined that there would be "some of the 'Coryell' in this year's team" but for that game, he said.

Head Coach Claude Gilbert

with some changes. "For instance, the old 4-3 flip has been changed to a 3-4 rip" in which more backs will have a part.

Ticket sales have been booming, too, he reported. The total stands at 10,172 seats—just a few hundred under last year's total. "We'll set a ticket record this year," he said.

The first game is scheduled for September 22 at Logan, Utah where the Aztecs will play Utah State. Gilbert expects to have his team "ready" for that game, he said.

Hitt Takes Fifth Main Event At Cajon Speedway

1971 champ, Jim Hitt of Lemon Grove regained the lead in main event wins Saturday night by taking the 30 lap super stock car feature at Cajon Speedway.

Top point leader John Dineen set fast time for the fourth race in a row but tangled with Tim Biggers in the trophy dash and had to settle for ten points in the main.

Hitt picked up 185 points and moved closer to the top spot from third place while second place McIntyre picked up 185 points to come within 50 points of Dineen.

Hitt started on the outside front and pulled slowly away to win the no-yellow event by a half a lap over pole sitter Ron Overman.

McIntyre worked his way through the pack from 14th spot while Biggers stayed right behind all the way.

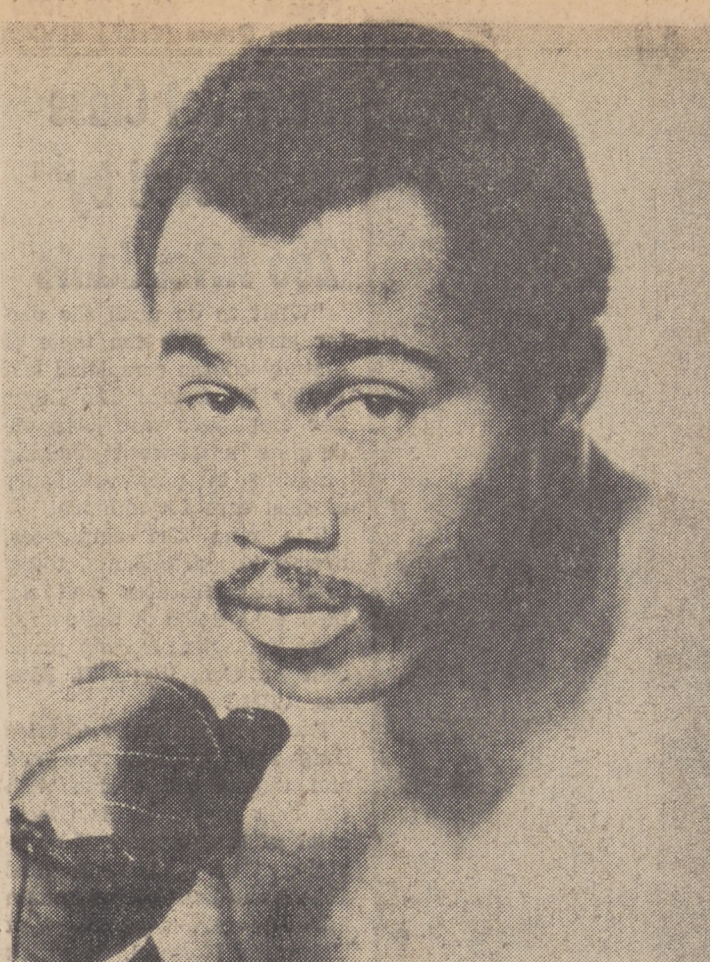

On the 29th round, coming into turn four Carl Simon of El Cajon bounced off a right rear tire which hit the wall and ended up in the infield.

Simon finished the race on three wheels with sparks flying which brought on the fire crew.

The semi-main was also a yellow free race which is a rare occurrence at Cajon's 3/8th mile oval.

67 cars qualified for the ten event program, the largest number in the '73 season.

George Hetx came from a sixth spot to win his first semi main over veteran Mike Hagerman who started on the pole.

San Diego Heavyweight Ken Norton — on closed circuit TV

San Diego Emerging As Boxing Town With Mickie Davis Boost

By MAX GOODWIN

San Diego has become a boxing town.

Some credit Lou Lake, a tall black former basketball player who was promoter at the Coliseum last year and presented shows that drew as few as 200 paid fans.

Others credit Lee Fruin, the handsome, blonde, investment firm operator who brought the Norton-Ali fight to the Sports Arena March 1 which brought fame and fortune to Kenny Norton, a broken jaw to Muhammad Ali. It should be noted that the fight might not have been scheduled without the good offices of Lake, and Norton might not have won without the hypnotic eye balls of Dr. Michael Dean, who was Norton's in-house psychiatrist since renounced by Norton.

But to the mind of this writer, it was Mickey Davies, a sterling matchmaker who exudes believability, who has managed to fill the "new" Coliseum with nearly all of his bi-weekly promotions since he took it over several months ago. He made believers out of the cynics who said it couldn't be done because "San Diego is too close to Tijuana and Los Angeles" where fist-fighting fans habitually sojourn in unreasonably large numbers.

PIPE SMOKER

But here he was Friday night, sitting at ringside, smoking his pipe and appearing, completely unflappable. Around him was a turnaway crowd of 3,320. In front of him was a card which boasted fistiana's no. 4 lightweight Jimmy Heair (2-0) beating in to submission a tough little cookie Raul "Lobito" Montoya (40-15-2). Heair did such a savage job on Montoya that the ring doctor was still taking stitches in a deep cut over his eye on an improvised operating table in the dressing room after the final match was over. Heair won 8 of the 10 rounds.

SOMBER COMEDIAN

In another 10 rounder, the fans saw Ray "Windmill" White battered illegally by head butts from his opponent Hildo Silva. White is the former light heavyweight California champion and is called the "Clown Prince of Boxing". He didn't have much opportunity to show his comical punches to his 20-year old opponent because each time White tried to get "cute", Silva head-butted him into a more somber attitude. The fight was stopped in the eight round and called a "technical draw" after Silva butted a bleeding gash over White's left eye. In the dressing room reporters counted four angry welts that could have been caused only by a head butt. Two of them were bleeding.

There were two other battles, both of which were in keeping with the club-like atmosphere of Davies' Coliseum. One, Joe Donatto, a protégé of Archie Moore, the old grey Mongoose, took a five round lacing in spite of having Archie managing from his corner. The victor was Gustavo Perez of Van Nuys. Both lads weighed in at 173.

A genuine knockout? Certainly. In the first bout Felix Garcia of San Diego KO'd Luis Robles of San Ysidro in 1:55 of round two. Both weighed in the 130 pound range.

BOXING ACTION PLANNED

Meanwhile, other boxing shows were being announced in San Diego. El Cortez Hotel's Frank Santos got into the act by announcing the closed circuit showing of the George Foreman-King Roman heavyweight 15-round championship fight in Tokyo. While the fight will take place on September 1, it will be received here, by an odd arrangement of the international dateline the night before—Friday night August 31 at 7:30 p.m.

All seats in the 3,000 person International room at El Cortez will be $6 with cocktail bars all over the place selling 90 cents drinks.

Not to be outdone, Top Rank, Inc., the syndicate owning Ken Norton, has booked the closed teevee showing of a Norton-Ali 12-round rematch Monday evening September 12. The battle will be at the Fabulous Forum in Inglewood. The showing here will be at both the Sports Arena and Golden Hall in the Community Concourse, 3rd and B streets, San Diego.

The Forum will charge $100 tops for the fight—the highest ever charged for viewing a fight in California. Locally, tops will be $10.25 at the Arena; $10 at Golden Hall.

Almost overnight, San Diego has become a fight town. The Ali-Norton promoters excited renewed attention to the manly art, but it was Davies who converted them.

The July candidates out-numbered any comparable group of nominees in the 26-year history of the Foundation, and their talents were in sports ranging from golf to swimming, sailing, tennis, wrestling, skeet shooting, track and field and channel swimming.

Spring Valley Bobby Sox Team Comes in Fifth in Nat'l Tourney

The minor all-stars of the Spring Valley Bobby Sox League in the 16 team national Bobby Sox tournament held in Buena Park last week came back to town as the fifth best team in the tournament.

Finished ahead of Spring Valley in the tournament were Fullerton Hills, Moreland-Campbell, Fairfield and Santee. Fullerton Hills have now won the tournament three years in a row.

The biggest disappointment for Spring Valley was their lack of defense as they committed 23 errors in the four games they played. A lack of hitting was also a problem as they were outscored 43-11, 29-22 and didn't score a run in the last 19 innings of the tournament.

When they won the district and area championship three weeks ago, their defense and hitting were outstanding as they only committed ten errors in six games, outscored their opponents 46-11 and outthit their opponents 56-18.

Spring Valley got its tournament play under way on Saturday and despite five errors in the first two innings came from behind to beat Thousand Oaks 8-6 for their seventh straight win in tournament play.

Seventh Win

The all-stars overcame a 4-0 deficit in the fourth inning as they came alive with the bat and exploded for five runs on seven hits, a walk and an error to lead 5-4. Mona Shoemaker delivered the big blow in the inning with a two run double.

Kathy Martin, making her pitching debut in all-star play, benefited from the big inning as she took over for Suzanne Trim, in the third inning and took control of the game. Allowing only two unearned runs on four hits, fanned four and walked five to pick up the win.

Spring Valley on Sunday relied on the three hit, four strike out and four walk pitching of Michele Kelly to down North West Garden Grove 3-0. Miss Kelly with her shutout over Garden Grove pitched her second straight shutout in all-star play and extended her scoreless inning streak to 19 innings.

The all stars scored the only runs Miss Kelly needed in the first inning as they took advantage of two hits, a walk and an error to score two runs and added another run in the second when Miss Kelly, with two out singled to center, stole second and scored when the catcher's throw went into center, making the score 3-0.

The closest Garden Grove came to scoring came in the sixth inning when Ana Campos with one out tripled to left but was doubled off third when Sheri Spriggs popped up to Kelly Richardson at third who caught it and jumped on the bag for an unassisted double play.

Lose to Fullerton
On Monday, Spring Valley fell in the claws of tournament champions Fullerton Hills who in their first two games won 22-0 and 16-1. This game was no different as they won 24-0 on the second no-hitter in the tournament by Claudia Hilty who fanned six and walked two for the win.

Fullerton broke open a 2-0 game in the fourth inning as they exploded for seven runs on five hits, three walks and two errors to lead 9-0 but didn't put the game on ice until the sixth inning when they took advantage of three hits, eight walks and four errors to score 14 runs to break open a 20-0 game.

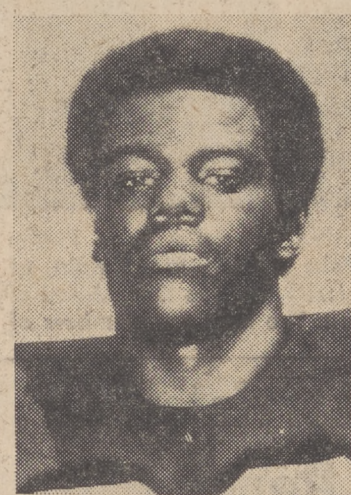

The all-stars on Tuesday were eliminated from the tournament as they lost 13-0 to Moreland-Campbell, who finished second in the tournament.

Four Stakes Highlight Del Mar's Racing Week

Four-stakes, including championship events for three-year-old fillies and colts, will highlight a most exciting week of Thoroughbred racing at Del Mar.

Yesterday, the seaside track was the scene of the 17th running of the $30,000-added Del Mar Oaks at a mile and one-eighth on the turf for sophomore fillies.

Friday, the featured attraction will be the $20,000-added De Anza Stakes at six furlongs for two-year-olds, while on Saturday, older fillies and mares will tangle at a mile and one-sixteenth on the grass in the $20,000-added Osunitas Stakes, a race which most likely will be presented in divisions.

Then, Sunday, as a climax to the week, the $0,000-added Del Mar Derby at nine furlongs on the turf for three-year-olds will have its 29th running.

Sandy Blue, a gritty daughter of Windy Sands, will be attempting to repeat her success in the Hollywood Oaks when she heads the line-up in the Del Mar Oaks. The Tommy Doyle-trained filly demonstrated her readiness recently when she turned back arch-rival Cellist in an overnight test at 7 1/2 furlongs on the grass.

Other Oaks prospects include stretch-running Card Table, a major stakes winner at Hollywood Park; Meilleur, winner of the first division of the Palomar Handicap on opening day this season; Button Top, upsetter in the San Clemente Stakes; Sphere, Tea Axe, Fire Spirit, Pecos Girl and Lady of Bagdad.

Sensational Century's Envoy, unbeaten in five outings and winner of the Hollywood Juvenile Championship, is expected to make his season's debut Friday in the De Anza Stakes, important prelude to the $100,000 Del Mar Futurity on closing day, Sept. 12. His opposition probably will include Such a Rush, winner of the C.T.B.A. Stakes; New Stamp, a six-length winner recently in 1:09 flat, and stakes-placed Viking's Sprite.

The Q's will open their pre-season play at U. of Louisiana (Lafayette, La.) against the Colonels on September 24. They play the Utah Stars there on the 25th, followed by a game there against San Antonio on the 27th.

USS NEW MEXICO Reunion

The 16th annual reunion of the USS NEW MEXICO (BB-40) will be held in San Diego Oct. 12-13 in Mission Valley at the Holiday Inn.

Para-Vet Class Completed by Zoo Attendants

"What to do until the doctor arrive" was the topic of a study course completed last Friday by several San Diego Zoo employees who have undergone a 10-week training program in para-veterinary medical care for animals.

The nine Zoo employees, mostly Zoo attendants, today received certificates noting their completion of the course from Zoological Society president Lt. Gen. Victor H. Kruk, USMC (ret.).

Zoo veterinarian Dr. Charles Sedgwick conceived, designed and taught the course with the help of Dr. Louis Gluck, chief of the division of neonatology at UCSD Medical School and head of the human intensive care department at University Hospital. Sedgwick said the students learned skills which will enable them to assume more of the duties formerly handled by the Zoo's veterinary staff, and also learned how to recognize and report symptoms to the veterinarians.

The course is the first of its kind at the San Diego Zoo and is thought to be first such undertaken in any zoo. Students attended the three-hour classroom session each week on their own time, and also did additional laboratory work.

Among the topics covered in the classes were circulatory and respiratory problems; clinical laboratory practices; symptoms and treatment for stress and shock; and the administration of medications and injections.

The training gained in the course will be especially helpful in dealing with newborn animals, Sedgwick said. "Raising wild animals in captivity can be a very complicated job, especially if their natural mothers reject them and the infants must be brought to the Children's Zoo for rearing by humans. Then they can require round-the-clock attention, including injections and special feeding processes," he added.

"In the past, it was usually necessary for the veterinarian to be involved in these procedures, but with the training they've had, our keepers and animal attendants will be able to do more of these things. We hope this training will increase the chances for survival of Zoo-born animals," Sedgwick pointed out that he and other members of the Zoo's veterinary staff will continue to supervise the work done by the course graduates.

In addition to the nine who received certificates today, Sedgwick said that 11 more Zoo employees are currently in the program and will complete the course soon.

Colorado River, N. Calif. Water To be Blended

Higher quality water from Northern California will be blended with water from the Colorado River to a greater extent and also sooner than previously expected for most urban areas in Southern California under a new schedule adopted last week by the Metropolitan Water District.

The District Board of Directors approved a motion based on results of a staff study which showed a 50-50 blend of the two supplemental water supplies could be attained by 1976. That compares with only 30 per cent of the Northern California water, delivered by the State Water Project, which formerly had been planned for most areas by that time.

Water from the Colorado River brought in by the District now contains about 750 parts per million mineral content and water from Northern California is expected to contain 250 parts per million. An equal blending will provide a supply of about 500 ppm, considered good quality water.

"It will mean delivery of higher quality water, help for local groundwater basins that are facing problems of salt build-up and a softer water than is now being delivered to homes in some areas," Frank M. Clinton, MWD general manager, said.

The Skinner Filtration Plant, now under construction near Temecula in Riverside County, will provide a 50-50 blend to parts of southeastern Riverside County and San Diego County. Two of the four pipelines serving San Diego County from the Colorado River for agricultural use.

Clinton said the new blending schedule can be obtained without increasing the District's financial burden, though costs of pumping water on the state project are substantially higher than those on the Colorado River Aqueduct.

He said the additional power cost for pumping extra amounts of water over the Tehachapi Mountains into Southern California on the state project from 1975 to 1975 will be more than offset by reduced pumping costs on the Colorado River Aqueduct and the higher prices charged by the District to its member agencies for the northern water.

EARLY LEMON GROVE—Mrs. Agnes Osgood holds a history of Lemon Grove she has put together and has placed in the Lemon Grove Library. In the notebook is a picture of two early residents of the area. The book will be on display for about one month along with a photo display of early Lemon Grove.

Facts About Early Lemon Grove Spark Interest of Local Woman

Did you know that at one time in the late 1800's, 3,000 acres in Lemon Grove was owned by one man, or that the fourth house ever built in Lemon Grove is still standing. These are some of the interesting facts concerning the area that are a part of a history being written by Mrs. Agnes Osgood, 83, of 2946 New Jersey st.

Mrs. Osgood has been working on the history for many years. She is concerned mainly with the early residents and their homes, and has succeeded in tracing many pieces of property back to the original deed signed by Robert Allison, the owner of the 3000 acres.

Allison bought the property from the Missions in the late 1800's and built the first house in Lemon Grove on the corner of what is now Main st. and Golden ave. The house was only a shack, and later he sold the land to the Nickersons who then sold to the Bryans.

The fourth house built, which is still standing, is located on Central, east of Olive. It has been refurbished.

Hearings to be Held

The Board of Supervisors will hold a hearing in September to decide whether to hold a County Service area election in Lemon Grove. The hearing was originally scheduled for September 12, but has been postponed due to a two-week vacation by the board.

The election will be only for those registered voters living on Alton pl. which is east of Cypress. It will be held to determine if the residents of Alton pl. wish to have their street and lights maintained by the County.

According to the County Engineers office, there are less than 30 voters involved.

Fire Chars Acreage In Spring Valley

A fire Monday burned seven acres of brush in Spring Valley. The blaze was reported to the Spring Valley Fire Department at 12:56 p.m. and was answered by five trucks from the station, plus one each from Lemon Grove, La Mesa and El Cajon.

The fire started on Valencia dr. but swept over to Helix and Crest drs. Minor damage was done to a fence near the fire, and no houses were endangered. The fire took a 1/2 hour to put out plus three hours to cleanup.

The cause is still under investigation, according to Chief Daryl Stager of the Spring Valley Fire Department.

Charger vs Eagles

Unitas to Greet Gabriel at 8:30 Saturday Night

Here it is nearing the end of the home section of Chargers pre-season games and the standings don't look good.

With the Svaremen facing Roman Gabriel and his Philadelphia Eagles in San Diego Stadium Saturday night, there had been nothing reported at press time Wednesday to indicate a turnaround in the Chargers losing way of life.

One important change is that the game starts at 8:30 instead of 8, but that may not affect the outcome of the first game ever between the two teams.

So it will be Gabriel against Johnny Unitas. San Diego (0-3) has lost to the N.Y. Giants, 28-3; St. Louis Cardinals (Cor-yell), 17-13, and San Francisco 49ers, 19-7.

The Eagles are little better (1-2). They beat the Buffalo Bills, 13-6, and lost to the Cincinnati Bengals, 42-21, and the Pittsburgh Steelers, 17-3.

GABE'S FIRST

Gabriel will be making his only S. Cal. appearance as starting quarterback for a new breed of Eagles under new coach Mike McCormack.

"Gabe gives us the poise and leadership a young team needs," said McCormack after giving up receiver Harold Jackson, running back Tony Baker, two No. 1 draft choices and a No. 3 to acquire the 12-year veteran star from the Los Angeles Rams.

The Eagles also added running back Norm Bulach from Baltimore to join Po James, who gained 565 yards as a rookie in 1972. They strengthened their defensive line by trading for Gerry Philbin, a standout for nine years with the New York Jets.

Other top Eagles are receiver Ben Hawkins, defensive linemen Mel Tom and Richard Harris and free safety Bill Bradley, the two-time NFL interception, champion and all-pro in 1972. Pride of San Diego's North County, placekicker Tom Dempsey returns sporting the NFL record field goal of 63 yards.

Philadelphia used its two No. 1 draft choices this year for all-Americans Jerry Sismore, offensive tackle from Texas, and Charles Young, tight end from USC. An impressive rookie is No. 12 draft choice, cornerback Joe Laverder, the former football and basketball star at San Diego State.

UNITAS TO GARRISON

The Chargers, last week, before 59,602 at Candlestick Park, took an early 7-0 lead over San Francisco on a 67-yard drive capped by a 10-yard pass from Unitas to Gary Garrison. But the 49ers came back to dominate play on the excellent passing of Joe Reed and John Brodie.

Unitas completed 5-of-10 passes for 77 yards. Mike Garrett made his first 1973 appearance and gained 25 yards in seven carries. Cid Edwards checked in with his first (and only) rush for six yards. Free safety Joe Beauchamp was a defensive standout with eight tackles, five pass deflections and a fumble recovery.

Said Head Coach Harlan Svare after the Candlestick affair, "We have achieved what we were after in the first three games. We have seen and tested a lot of people. I wanted to find out now, not in November, what people would stand up under pressure. "Unitas is right on schedule. He played a little longer (2 1/2 quarters) Sunday and he will play a little longer next week. Garrett ran well and Edwards should be ready next week. Defensively we did a good job especially in the tough situations. The 49ers have the best pass protection in the NFC."

HADL NEXT

Next week the Chargers face John Hadl and the Los Angeles Rams at the Coliseum in L.A. It will be Friday game starting at 8:30 p.m.

The Chargers Kickoff Banquet is set for Tuesday night Sept. 4 at Town and Country Convention Center. Tickets are $10 and includes the cost of a steak dinner. Tickets are available at Stadium Gate E or by mailing a check for $10 to "1973 Kickoff Banquet" care of the Chargers, P.O. Box 20666, S.D. 92120.

Local Men Named to United Way Drive

Two local men have been named to head the United Way drive in their area.

Webber Joe Comella, store manager of the Sears appliance-catalog unit at 641 Sweetwater road, has been named 1973 United Way community chairman for Spring Valley.

Comella, a seven-year veteran of the firm, came to Sears, Chula Vista, as a Management Trainee after graduation from the University of California at Santa Barbara. Upon completion of his training in 1967, he was called to active military service and was assigned to a medical field service school with the U. S. Army.

Foster was recruited by fellow banker Robert L. Guest of the Lemon Grove United States National Bank who is United Way East County area chairman.

The Lemon Grove United Way chairman is now making local contacts in the business, professional, and public service sectors of the community for sub-chairmen to complete his campaign structure.

"Chuck" Foster came to Lemon Grove from National City where he served the community as president of the Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club. He is married and has three children.
